Critically-III Children and Families Enjoyed a Day at the Beach Learning How to Surf and Paddleboard

Miracles for Kids kicks off its 12th Annual "Surf & Paddle" Camp in Collaboration with Waves of Impact

IRVINE, Calif. (June 14, 2023) – Miracles for Kids, in partnership with Waves of Impact, kicked off their 12th Annual Surf & Paddle Camp with its Surf Day on June 14th at Newport Pier beach. Joyful memories were created as 26 children and their families enjoyed a carefree day filled with surfing, paddle boarding, yoga, sand castle building, and time together.

While families across America are gearing up for summertime travel adventures, parents of a critically-ill child continue to face the ongoing struggles and stresses of managing everyday care needs. Miracles for Kids empowers people to "be the miracle" for families struggling with the battle against a child's life-threatening illness. Leveraging the power of community, the California-based non-profit provides for essential needs such as housing and bills, in addition to emotional wellness, such as days with family-friendly opportunities for critically-ill children and their siblings to experience joyful play.

"Miracles for Kids is grateful to all of the sponsors and volunteers who make our Surf & Paddle Camps possible each year. Working together, we provide a day where families can hit the pause button on a life filled with extraordinary stress - and simply enjoy each other," says Autumn Strier, Co-Founder & CEO of Miracles for Kids.

Waves of Impact and Yoga Six supported by sending volunteer instructors to offer stretching and supplies for the children to have fun in the water and learn to surf.

This July, "Surf & Paddle" Summer Camp offers a much-needed physical/mental respite for the entire family with a chance to enjoy a day of sun, surf, and sand for FREE. Parents get a break from the overwhelm of ongoing care management, with nothing on their agenda but watching their kids experience the achievement of learning something new. Siblings get a day that feels all about them too, receiving the same special treatment and attention. Child patients get to enjoy a moment of feeling like just a fun-loving kid again as spirits are lifted and they get to run wild on the beach instead of running to doctor's appointments.

Media is invited to attend and cover the next surf day on Friday, July 14, 2023 at Bolsa Chica State Beach in Huntington 7am-3pm, and on Thursday July 20, 2023 for a stand up paddle and kayak day at the Newport Aquatic Center from 8am-2pm.
