MIRACLES FOR KIDS HOSTS FIRST LOS ANGELES-AREA FALL GOLF INVITATIONAL TO BENEFIT CRITICALLY-ILL CHILDREN AND FAMILIES IN DESPERATE NEED

Prominent LA and OC locals come together at the beautiful Braemar Country Club in Tarzana to make miracles come true for families with critically-ill children

Tarzana, CA (September 23, 2019) – On Monday, September 16, Miracles for Kids, a Southern California-based nonprofit organization with the mission of improving the lives of critically-ill children and their families in need, hosted its first Fall LA Golf Invitational at the world-class Braemar Country Club Course. The fun day on the course raised nearly $20,000 and welcomed more than 70 guests – including Miracles for Kids board members, sponsors and players.

“We are continuing to expand our reach and increase our impact in the Los Angeles area,” notes Autumn Strier, Co-Founder and CEO of Miracles for Kids. “The Miracles for Kids team is so grateful for the tremendous support we have received from the community and from everyone who participated in this event. The funds raised will help to provide financial and emotional support to families who are crumbling from the devastation of fighting for their child’s life.”

Monday’s Golf Invitational was hosted by Miracles for Kids and included lead sponsor Sun Trust Bank. Additional event sponsors included Highland Capital Brokerage, HLB Gravier, Business Affairs Management Inc., Reach Music Publishing, Rasheed & Regina Muhammad, Bogey Time, 19th Hole Golf Productions, Citrus Marmalade, Ascendant Spirits, Carbonadi Vodka, Backyard Mary, Honma Golf, Braemar Country Club and Jimmy John’s.

The day kicked off at 9:00 a.m. with a Bloody Mary and breakfast bar, followed by a $5k Mega Putt contest at 10:00 a.m. Once the 10:30 announcements were made, the tournament began. Players enjoyed various games including “Beat the Pro,” hosted by Honma Golf, “Guess Your Distance” sponsored by 19th Hole Golf Productions, “Closest to the Pin” from The Crayon Initiative, and more in addition to massages, tacos and margaritas from Citrus Marmalade, mini sandwiches from Jimmy John’s, and other snacks throughout the day.

Among the tournament participants included former LA Lakers Player and Coach Byron Scott, Rasheed Muhammad of SunTrust Bank and Miracles for Kids Board of Directors Member, Michael Closter of Reach Music Publishing, Matthew Burke of Singer Burke Zimmer, William Steven Temple of Business Affairs Management, William Monroe Biles of Highland Capital Brokerage, Alphonso Lordo of SunTrust

Bank, Randi Hinton and Ronald Kikuchi of UPS, Jason Kummer of Alcon Entertainment, Curtis Green of PrimaHealth Credit and Miracles for Kids Board Member, and more.

After a day of fun on the course, players returned to a hosted cocktail reception to wind down the day and learn more about Miracles for Kids and their work to help families with critically-ill children battle bankruptcy, hunger, homelessness, and depression – so they can concentrate on what’s most important, fighting for their child’s life.
